

MyBee privacy policy

UAB MyBee Fleet (hereinafter – we or the Company) values and protects the privacy and security of personal data, therefore in this Privacy Policy (hereinafter – the Privacy Policy) we explain how we handle the personal data of our clients and other data subjects (hereinafter – you or the Client) when using: (a) the MyBee Website App (hereinafter – the Web App); (b) MyBee vehicles – cars (hereinafter – the Vehicles); (c) MyBee website <https://www.mybee.lt> (hereinafter – the Website) and (d) entering into the Subscription Agreement with us; (e) communicate with us by phone, e-mail or social networks.

We take appropriate measures to ensure that the personal data - any information that can be used to identify an individual that is provided to us is always secure and that we process personal data in compliance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679) (hereinafter – the GDPR) applicable data protection laws, our internal policies, guidelines, and procedures.

In this Privacy Policy, we present the most important structured information about the protection of your personal data: i.e., what personal data we collect, how and why we use it, on what legal basis we process it, how long we store it, to whom we transfer it, as well as our duties in processing your personal data, your rights, and the methods of their implementation. The most important information about processing your personal data is presented in the tables in Chapter 15 of this Privacy Policy. Please take the time to review this Privacy Policy, and please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

If you use the Web App and/or the Website, we will assume that you are familiar with this Privacy Policy and the purposes, methods, and procedures for the processing of your personal data specified in it. If you do not want your personal data to be processed as described in this Privacy Policy, please do not use the Web App and/or Website, and do not provide us with your personal data in any other way.

The Privacy Policy is a constantly changing document, so we can improve, change, and update it if necessary. For this reason, please visit the Website or Web App from time to time, where you will always find the latest version of the Privacy Policy. We will also additionally inform you about the most significant changes to the Privacy Policy, and we will always publish the updated version on our Website and Web App.

The latest changes to the Privacy Policy have been made and are valid from 4th of May 2023.

1. Definitions

The following terms are defined as follows in this Privacy Policy:

We or the Company shall mean UAB MyBee Fleet, a private limited liability company, established and operating under the laws of the Republic of Lithuania, legal entity code 302791089, address of registered office Žalgirio g. 112-1, 09300 Vilnius.

Services or MyBee Services shall mean all services that the Company offers and provides to you, including, among other things, (i) rent (use) of the Vehicle; (ii) maintenance of the Vehicle and assets therein, insurance as specified in the Subscription Agreement; (iii) other services provided on the Web App and/or the Website.

Client shall mean the natural person who concluded the Subscription Agreement with us, or if a legal person concluded the Subscription Agreement with us, then the natural person representing them, as well as the natural person to whom the person who concluded the Subscription Agreement with us has granted permission to possess and temporarily use the Vehicle.

Website shall mean the website accessible at <https://www.mybee.lt>.

Web App shall mean software functionalities, settings, features, and other services provided via the Website, which are used to perform actions in connection with rent of MyBee Vehicle and Services delivery – Vehicle reservation, Subscription Agreement conclusion, and/or other associated actions provided for therein.

Account shall mean a digital account of a natural or legal person, for personal use, created in the Web App or the Website.

Subscription Agreement shall mean the agreement on the provision of the Services concluded between the Client and the Company.

EEA means the European Economic Area, which consists of the European Union states and Liechtenstein, Iceland, and Norway.

Other terms shall have the meanings assigned to them and defined in the GDPR and/or the Subscription Agreement.

2. On what legal grounds do we process your personal data?

We process your personal data specified in this Privacy Policy based on the following legal bases:

- when concluding, executing, changing, and administering the Subscription Agreement (GDPR Art. 6(1)(b));
- fulfilling the legal obligations and requirements of legal acts applicable to us (GDPR Art. 6(1)(c));
- implementing our and third parties' legitimate interests (GDPR Art. 6(1)(f));
- implementing your consent (GDPR Art. 6(1)(a) GDPR, Art. 9(2)(a)).

In the scope and conditions provided by the applicable legal acts, one or more of the above-mentioned legal bases may be applied to the processing of your same personal data. The legal bases for the processing of your personal data are described in detail and presented in Chapter 15 of this Privacy Policy.

3. For what purposes and what personal data do we collect?

We collect and process only your personal data that are sufficient and necessary to achieve the purposes for which they are processed. The purposes for processing your personal data and the list of collected personal data are described in detail and presented in Chapter 15 of this Privacy Policy.

We may combine personal data we have received from you (when you are using the Web App, the Services, and/or the Website) with the personal data we have collected from other public or accessible sources (e.g., with data obtained using the website cookies, or with data legally obtained from third parties, etc.).

4. Can you not provide your personal data and/or not consent to the processing of your personal data?

Your personal data is collected and processed to conclude or fulfill the Subscription Agreement with you and/or enable us to provide the Services and respond to your requests and complaints promptly and adequately. Suppose you do not provide your data, provide it with errors, or refuse to provide it further. In that case, we probably will not be able to conclude and/or execute the Subscription Agreement, provide the Services, and adequately respond to your requests, complaints, and/or other requirements that require our action. Accordingly, failure to provide personal data or refusal to continue to provide certain personal data will mean that the Subscription Agreement with you will not be concluded or will be terminated.

If we process your personal data based on legitimate interest, we have weighed the opposing interests and have decided that considering the purpose for processing personal data and the measures that we have taken, our (or the relevant third party's) interest in processing your personal data is not overridden by your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms which require protection of personal data. In this case, you have the right to receive more information regarding this processing and/or the right to object to the processing of your personal data based on legitimate interest.

In cases where we process personal data based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, and data processing based on your consent will be terminated.

Chapter 11 of the Privacy Policy outlines more information about your rights.

5. From what sources do we get your data?

We receive almost all your personal data from you; when you enter into a Subscription Agreement with us, use the Web App, the Services, the Website, and receive your personal data in other informed ways. Also, when it is allowed by legal acts, and when it is necessary for the execution of the Subscription Agreement and/or to achieve other purposes of processing your personal data, the Company collects or becomes known to the Company various information about you from the following multiple sources:

- from appointed institutions - data on the validity of the driver's license;
- from the police and municipalities - information about the violation of road traffic rules, other violations, and traffic incidents;
- from insurance companies and other official institutions or persons - information about traffic incidents, damage to the Company's Vehicles or third parties;
- from payment service providers – information about your payment transactions;
- from debt collection companies, claims management and/or credit rating companies - data of your financial obligations to us;
- from public registers – various publicly available information;
- from internet/communication service providers – your usage data;
- from other official institutions (e.g., various police units, Estonian Tax and Customs boards) - information on ongoing investigations;
- from service providers, partners (data processors), and other data controllers – various Service related information.

6. Do we share your personal data with others?

Yes, the Company discloses all or part of your personal data to the following data recipients: various service providers with whom we have entered into service and data processing agreements, the companies belonging to the same group as the Company, competent authorities, and other data controllers who have a right to information in accordance with the applicable law and/or our legitimate interests. Also, with your consent, your personal data may be disclosed to persons and/or companies specified by you. More specifically:

The Company uses a variety of service providers (e.g., server and cloud rental, IT service, identity verification, payment collection, audit, accounting, legal, tax consulting services, claims administration, debt collection, analytics, direct marketing, customer service, and other service providers). All service providers have entered into service and data processing agreements with us and are considered to be processors of your personal data who may process your personal data only in accordance with our instructions and in strict compliance with the purposes of the processing. All data processors, like us, must ensure the security of your personal data in accordance with applicable laws and the agreements entered into with us.

To ensure the smooth provision and quality of the Services, it may be necessary to transfer some of your personal data to other companies belonging to the same group as the Company. Intergroup companies, like other service providers, are considered data processors and are subject to all the terms and conditions applicable to data processors.

If necessary and on legally justified grounds, we also provide your personal data to service providers who are separate data controllers, as well as to various institutions, organizations, and other data controllers who have the right to receive information under applicable legislation and/or our legitimate interests. For example:

- in the event of any incident and/or car accident, your data will be transferred to insurance companies and, if necessary, to other parties involved in the accident;
- after receiving fines for traffic violations, we have the right and, in certain cases, the obligation to disclose the data of the person who violated the traffic rules to the relevant authorities (e.g. the police), based on the Vehicle data we have;
- we have the right and, in certain cases, the obligation to transfer information about you to competent authorities (e.g. law enforcement authorities, courts, other dispute resolution authorities) for the purposes of investigating road traffic violation, fraud, crime, crime prevention, and other investigations;
- after receiving fines for parking (parking) violations, we have the right and, in certain cases, the obligation to transfer your data to parking lot owners or designated collection companies that contact us on their behalf;
- if you do not fulfill your financial obligations according to the Subscription Agreement and do not pay the debt within the deadline specified in the notice, we have the right to transfer your personal data to debt collection companies, bailiffs, and courts in order to start debt collection processes;
- Your personal data may also be transferred to other data controllers (insurance companies, vehicle maintenance service providers or other additional service providers) in order to provide Services;
- Your personal data may also be transferred to other service providers who are independent data controllers whose offers, promotions, game campaigns you have agreed to receive;
- Your personal data may also be transferred to operators of social network platforms if you perform active actions on our social media profiles (e.g. Facebook, LinkedIn).

7. Do we transmit data outside the EEA?

Data processors and independent data controllers with whom we share your personal data are usually located in European Union member states or store data entrusted to us in European Union countries. However, we have cases where carefully selected service providers (e.g., Google, Microsoft Azure, etc.) and controllers (e.g., operators of social networking platforms LinkedIn, Facebook, etc.) process personal data outside the EEA.

In such cases, we carefully follow the practices and guidelines of supervisory authorities regarding the transfer of personal data outside the EEA and carefully assess the conditions under which the data is transferred and may continue to be processed and stored after the transfer outside the EEA. Also, to ensure an adequate level of data security and to guarantee the lawful transfer of data, where possible, we sign the standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission for data transfers outside the EEA or ensure that this is done otherwise, in accordance with GDPR standards.

If you would like to receive more information about how we ensure the security of your personal data when transferring it outside the EEA, don't hesitate to contact us using the contact details provided in Chapter 14 of the Privacy Policy.

8. Do we perform automated decision-making and/or profiling?

The Company uses automated decision-making, including profiling, to provide customized direct marketing services (e.g. sending newsletters only to interested clients). Accordingly, the Company may collect, analyse and process personal data by applying special algorithms and prediction models about your choices, behavior, criteria for using the Services, amounts spent, and similar characteristics. All these performed actions do not have any legal or similarly significant effect on you.

9. How long do we store your personal data?

We process and store your personal data for no longer than the purpose(s) of processing required or when required by law. Detailed information about the possible purposes of processing your personal data and the retention periods of personal data processed for these purposes is specified in Chapter 15 of this Privacy Policy.

At the end of the set term for processing and storing your data, we delete your personal data or reliably and irreversibly anonymise them as soon as possible, within a reasonable period necessary to perform such an action.

Your personal data may be stored longer than specified in this Privacy Policy only when:

- your data is necessary for the proper administration of debt or damage (e.g., you failed to fulfil your financial and/or property obligations or caused damage to the Company or other persons) for the investigation of a dispute, complaint, to ensure our or third parties' legal interests;
- it is necessary for the Company to be able to defend itself against existing or threatened demands, claims, or lawsuits to exercise its rights;
- there are reasonable suspicions of violations or illegal acts, for which there is or may be an investigation;
- the data is necessary to ensure the security, integrity, and resilience of information systems (e.g., after noticing suspicious actions in the Account, Web App, Website, etc.);
- there are other grounds provided for in legal acts.

10. How do we ensure the security of your personal data?

We process your personal data responsibly and securely, following our internal data processing rules and appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect personal data against unauthorized data processing, accidental loss, destruction, damage, alteration, disclosure, or any other illegal processing action.

Accordingly, we follow the following essential data processing principles:

- we collect personal data only for defined and legal purposes;
- we process personal data honestly and only for the primary purpose;
- we store personal data for no longer than the established purposes or legal acts require;
- we entrust the processing of personal data only to employees who have been granted such right and official access;
- we process personal data only by applying appropriate technical and organisational measures;
- we disclose personal data to third parties only if there is a legal basis;
- if applicable, we inform the State Data Protection Inspectorate about recorded or suspected violations of personal data security;
- we periodically conduct data protection training for our employees;
- we perform periodic internal and/or external IT security audits;
- we change, adapt, and constantly improve various processes to ensure the safest possible personal data collection, reception, transmission, use, etc. processing steps.

We emphasize that we regularly monitor our systems for possible violations or attacks. Still, it is impossible to ensure complete security of information transmitted over the Internet or to prevent breaches, especially those that may occur due to your carelessness or disclosure of data to others. Taking this into account, we note that you also bear the personal risk of submitting personal data using the Internet connection through the Web App and the Website. You also maintain the entire risk related to the voluntary disclosure of your Account data to others and/or the careless use of your personal data you receive directly from us.

11. What rights do you have?

If we process your personal data for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy or if you have reason to believe that we are processing your personal data, then you, as a data subject, have the following rights under the GDPR:

- The right to know – to know (be informed) about the processing of your personal data;
- The right to access – to receive confirmation as to whether your personal data is being processed, and if so, to request access to your personal data and receive a copy of it;
- The right to correct – to request that inaccurate or incomplete personal data be corrected;
- The right to object – in certain cases, to object to the processing of your personal data;
- The right to withdraw your consent – when we process personal data with your consent;
- The right to limit – to request that redundant or illegally processed personal data be restricted;
- The right to delete data/be forgotten – to request the deletion of illegally processed personal data or those personal data that are no longer necessary to achieve the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- The right to transfer – to receive your personal data in a systematized computer-readable format and transfer that data to another data controller;
- The right to complain – file a complaint with the State Data Protection Inspectorate, but we recommend contacting us first, and we will try to solve all your requests together with you.

11.1. Right to know:

In this Privacy Policy, we try to provide you with relevant information about processing your personal data as simply and in detail as possible. The most important information for you can be found in Chapter 15 of the Privacy Policy, which details the purposes of processing personal data, categories of data, legal grounds for the processing, and storage terms.

11.2. The right to access the processed data:

In order to exercise this right, contact us via e-mail info@mybee.it and we will send you a letter with information (or will explain in person) how you can obtain a copy of your personal data.

11.3. The right to correct personal data:

If the personal data you provided has changed (surname, e-mail address, telephone, driver's license, etc.), or you believe that the information we process about you is inaccurate, you have the right to demand to change, clarify, or correct information. You can make some changes to your personal data yourself in your Account via the Web App (e.g., upload a new driver's license, change your address, etc.). In other cases, you must contact us via contacts stated in Chapter 14 of the Privacy Policy.

11.4. The right to object personal data processing:

Suppose you have reason to believe that our data processing violates your fundamental rights and freedoms and / or is being processed against GDPR or other legal requirements. In that case, you can exercise your right as a data subject and limit the data processed. However, we must point out that this may lead to us being unable to guarantee you all the Services, which may lead to the suspension or termination of the Subscription Agreement. To exercise this right, you must contact us via contacts stated in Chapter 14 of the Privacy Policy.

11.5. The right to withdraw your consent:

In cases where we process personal data based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, and data processing based on your consent will be terminated. For example, you can withdraw your consent to receive marketing offers and various information anytime through any channels we provide (e.g., newsletters, SMS messages, in Web App notifications, etc.). Revoking these consents will not prevent you from continuing to use our Services, but it will mean that we will not be able to provide you with valuable offers about our Services. We also note that the withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of data processing until the withdrawal of consent.

To exercise this right, you can conveniently do so in the following ways:

- you can unsubscribe from the newsletter at any time by clicking the e-mail the "Unsubscribe from newsletters" link in the letter;
- you can easily manage and change newsletters options, in your Web Account settings (by clicking on "My Profile" and then by clicking on "Subscription to offers");
- by changing the operating system settings of your device (in case of Cookies);
- by contacting us via the contacts specified in Chapter 14 of the Privacy Policy.

11.6. The right to restrict data processing:

You have the right to restrict our ability to process your personal data. After you limit the processing of your personal data, we will no longer carry out any active actions with your personal data other than personal data storage. However, the restriction of personal data may mean that during the restriction period, we may not be able to provide you with the Services, which may result in the suspension or termination of the Subscription Agreement.

You can limit the processing of personal data in at least one of the following circumstances:

- your personal data is inaccurate (personal data processing actions, in this case, will be limited until the accuracy of the personal data is checked);
- your personal data is processed illegally, but you do not agree to have your data deleted;
- the Company no longer needs your personal data for the specified purposes, but you need them to assert, fulfil or defend legal claims;
- your personal data is processed based on legitimate interest, and you object to such processing of personal data. In this case, data processing will be limited until it is checked whether the reasons for which we process your personal data are superior to you.

To exercise this right, you must contact us via contacts stated in Chapter 14 of the Privacy Policy.

11.7. Right to delete data (right to be forgotten):

You have the right to request that we no longer process your personal data (and delete it in some cases) in the event of at least one of the following circumstances:

- personal data are no longer necessary to achieve the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- you revoke the consent on which the data processing was based, and there is no other legal basis for processing the data;
- your personal data is processed illegally;
- you have submitted an objection to the processing of personal data on the basis of our legitimate interest, and it is proven that your interests are superior in a particular case.

We will consider your request to delete your personal data (e.g., request to delete your Account) as a request also to terminate the Subscription Agreement, which will be terminated in accordance with the procedure provided in the Subscription Agreement terms. A request to delete only certain scope of your personal data may also result in the suspension or termination of the Subscription Agreement or the fact that we will not be able to provide you with all Services.

If you express a wish to delete all or part of your data, we will no longer actively process your data, which will no longer be necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed, but personal data will be stored according to the established terms, for the following reasons:

- for accounting and tax requirements, personal data will continue to be processed following GDPR Article 6(1)(c)– processing the data is necessary to fulfil the legal obligation applicable to the Company;

- GPS (location) data will continue to be processed following GDPR Article 6(1)(f) – processing of data is necessary for the legitimate interests of the Company or a third party;
- to process customer complaints and other appeals, personal data will be processed following GDPR Article 6(1)(b) – processing of data is necessary to fulfil the agreement to which the data subject is a party;
- Ensure the implementation of blacklisting to forbid the use of Services in the future following GDPR Article 6(1)(f) – processing of data is necessary for the legitimate interests of the Company or a third party;
- in the event of disputes, claims, or debt administration, the personal data will continue to be processed to secure our other legal requirements and protect rights following GDPR Article 6(1)(f) – processing of data is necessary for the legitimate interests of the Company or a third party.

To exercise this right, you must contact us via contacts stated in Chapter 14 of the Privacy Policy.

11.8. Right to data portability:

When data processing is based on your consent or a Subscription agreement and is carried out by automated means, you have the right to receive the data you have provided and or created to us in a structured, commonly used, and computer-readable format. Also, if it is technically possible at your request, your data may be forwarded directly to another data controller specified by you.

11.9. Right to file a complaint:

If you believe that we process your data in violation of personal data protection legislation requirements, please get in touch with us directly first. We believe that with good faith and effort, we will be able to dispel all your doubts, answer your questions, satisfy your requests, and correct any mistakes we have made. If you are not satisfied with our proposed method of solving the problem or, in your opinion, we will not take the necessary actions according to your request. You will have the right to file a complaint with the State Data Protection Inspectorate (L. Sapiegos g. 17, LT-10312 Vilnius, by e-mail: ada@ada.lt or the supervisory authority in the Member State of your habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement (see: https://edpb.europa.eu/about-edpb/about-edpb/members_en).

12. How can you exercise your rights?

You can submit your requests to exercise your rights in the following ways:

- You can exercise your rights by contacting us via e-mail info@mybee.lt and submitting a free-form request. Your request will be accepted and processed only if e-mail from which you contact us matches the e-mail that is linked with your Account. In response to your request, we may send a control message to the last contact in the Account (via SMS and e-mail), asking for an active authorization step and/or requesting additional documents or data.
- By phone: +37070077024 (please note that we cannot exercise all of your rights by phone). When you contact us by phone, we firstly verify your identity by asking you to provide your Account information or other information that only you should know. As part of this verification, we may send a verification message (by SMS or e-mail) to the last contact on your Account, asking you to take active action. If the verification procedure fails, we will have to declare that you are not a data subject and will have to reject your request.
- You can also exercise your rights by coming to our customer service department and filling out the application form, in which case we will ask you to show your identity document (we will not keep a copy of the document).

13. How do we process your requests to exercise your rights?

To protect our clients' data from unauthorized disclosure, we will need to verify your identity upon receipt of your request to exercise your right(s). To confirm a person's identity, we primarily use the methods specified in Chapter 12 of the Privacy Policy. After receiving your request to exercise your right(s) and when the identity mentioned above verification procedure was successful, we undertake to provide you with information about the actions we took/or did not take in response to your request as soon as possible, but in any case, no later than within 1 (one) month from the date of receipt of your request.

Remember that your rights are not absolute, and we have the right to refuse to fulfil your request with a reasoned written answer under the conditions and grounds provided by legal acts. Considering the complexity and number of requests, we have the right to extend the period of 1 (one) month by another 2 (two) months, informing you about this before the end of the first month and indicating the reasons for such an extension. If your request is submitted electronically, we will also provide you with an answer electronically, unless this is impossible (e.g., due to a substantial amount of information) or when you request to answer in another way. We will provide the information to you free of charge, but if the requests are manifestly unreasonable or disproportionate, in particular, due to its repetitive content, we may charge a reasonable fee to cover administrative costs or refuse to act on your request.

14. How can you contact us?

The data controller that processes your personal data indicated in this Privacy Policy when you use the Company's Services is MyBee Estonia OÜ, legal entity code: 16462004, address of registered office: ToomKuninga 15-60, 10122 Tallinn, Republic of Estonia.
